

beloved friend Garrison, Phillips. The former a much better: works as well as ever after so long (rejuvenate suffering). His wife yet longer: all the yet well; his daughter, son-in-law & family are about well here. Mr Phillips is as eloquent as ever. I do not share his views on Curran - or Garrison, or the like. I am, who has been

To Elizabeth Place, Nichol to her common deposit of health. My dear friend, will you now, just at the time of the year accept the love & blessing of your friend & family. Yours & Cate's, - Wm Chapman

31 1875. to you so many years the fund of our need? - My has never lost her during all the years

Since our Cause was won, we ceased to feel most grateful to your share in bringing it.

Since peace & Emancipation here, I have been of necessity devoted to family cares & duties.
My eldest brother has been lying ill for years, unable to move a finger even, & my Mother very aged so you may suppose, requires my unremitting attention and the illness of one sister & the absence of others, leave only two of us to fill the breach. My younger brother died two years since, — a great, good man having "fulfilled a long time" in his Fifty three years. These family duties have filled my time almost to the ex-

Custom of correspondence, but my mind has been free to follow the lines of yourself & others of our English friends, with constant & grateful affections.

Sometimes. Pray let me hear of you your name and that of my dearth. Martineau on the list of office-bearers of the Secy Repeat C. D. add, just sent me by our friend Miss Estlin's kindness! - Having told you of myself & family, let me speak of our beloved friend Samson Phillips. The former is much